

CASE Consulting, Inc.

Albert A. Stevens, PE
Structural Engineer

- Experience: Chao & Associates 1991- 1996
Six years of Structural Design on all types of structures
- Mabry Engineering 1996-2002
Five years of Structural Engineering
Proficient in the use of computerized structural analysis and design programs, as well as Auto Cad.
- CASE Consulting 2002- Present
- Education: University of South Carolina
Columbia, South Carolina
B.S. Civil Engineering, 1991
- Affiliation: American Society of Civil Engineers
Professional Registration: South Carolina, North Carolina, Florida and Tennessee
- Qualifications: Experienced structural designer of all types of structures; wood, steel, concrete, precast concrete, concrete masonry units and light gage metal. Proficient in the use of structural design programs, presently Teds by Tekla Software. Proficient in the use of AutoCAD 2015 and presently in the process of learning Revit 2015. Has designed structural components of numerous building projects throughout the southeastern United States. The materials utilized have included, but not limited to structural steel aluminum, large / heavy timber, masonry, light gage metals and concrete. The projects have been in the private and public sector, with clients ranging from architects, developers, to owners and government agencies. Probable project cost estimating document preparation.